

CHANGING THE COURSE OF YOUR LIFE

I believe very strongly that no matter how battered your life might be now, it can still be better; and no matter how good you think your life might be, it can still be great. It is the scripture that defines your future, not your situation.

Therefore, you do not have a future without the scriptures, because we are word-made. "All things were made by him (the Word); without was not anything made that was made." John 1:3

The Word is the secret of every true transformation that a man experiences in life. (Ps.19:7)

Without God's Word, distinction is impossible. God's Word is the key to every destiny.

In my working with people for over a decade, I have seen three categories of people. The first category of people are those that have accepted their situations as their portion. They believe there is nothing they can do about their lives. They have conditioned themselves to accept what life has offered them.

The second category of people are those that are tired of their position, but do not know what to do to change it. This class of people is greatly frustrated, and keeps questioning their conditions.

However, the third category of people are those that are tired of their state, and went after and laid hold on the right key to change their state.

There are very few people in this class, and my assignment is to increase the number of people in this category to place in your hand the right key that will change your life forever.

Your life is not a mistake; the mistakes you have made in life notwithstanding. You can definitely step out of your mistakes and make your life a testimony.

I want you to know that your failings are not enough to make you a failure in life, because you have not failed until God is tired of raising you again.

"Don't you know that this good man, though you trip him up seven times, will each time rise again?" Prov. 24:16TLB

"Rejoice not against me, o mine enemy: when I fall, I shall rise again; when I sit in darkness, the Lord shall be a light unto me." Micah 7:8

(Please check also Ps.37:24)

Changing the course of your life will result in awesome turnaround for you.

This change is, however, your personal responsibility.

Do not just watch your life go wrong and still keep complaining or just sit down there waiting for something to happen. Change the gear, and change the direction of your life.

Nothing happens until you make it happen. As long as the prodigal son was watching his condition, it was getting worse. But when he took responsibility, he saw his life moved from feeding on swine's food to eating great feast.

He would have died in his condition if he had not done anything. (Lk15:11-32)

COVENANT KEYS FOR CHANGING THE COURSE OF YOUR LIFE

BE REALISTIC

There is nothing as good as being able to tell yourself the truth. Being able to tell yourself truth is a strong virtue required to change the course of your life.

You may succeed in deceiving everyone that all is well with you while everything is collapsing. But ultimately you end up as the main victim of the collapse, not the people you are deceiving.

"But let a man examine himself."

2Cor.11:28

"Examine yourselves, whether ye be in the faith; prove your own selves." 2Cor. 13:5

Carry out an evaluation of your life regularly, and see how things are going and be sincere about it. No one did it for the prodigal son; do not expect anyone to do it for you.

REACT AGAINST YOUR CONDITION

Being realistic is not enough to change the course of your life. You must engage the law of reaction. Until there is a reaction from your end, your life will never experience any form of transformation. React against that stagnation, that joblessness, that sickness, that lack.

The prodigal son reacted against his condition. Do not just stay there and watch your business crumbling with your eyes opened, react against it. In Physics, we learnt that every object maintains a stationary position until an external force is applied.

Be angry at your failure and move in the direction of success. At forty years, you cannot still be living from hand to mouth. You should be angry! It is reaction that gives birth to revolution.

CHANGE YOUR THINKING PATTERN

Your life moves in the direction of your thought.

Your thought is the pilot of your life. You follow its direction. It is automatic.

Until you change your thought pattern, changing the course of your life will be practically impossible. Until your thought pattern changes, nothing is permitted to change in your life.

"For as he thinketh in his heart, so is he." Prov.23:7

And be not conformed to his world: but be ye transformed by the renewing (changing) of your mind." Romans 12:2

Until the prodigal son begun to think beyond his environment, he never moved out of the place.

Set your thought in the direction of greatness and success, and you shall soon arrive there. Right information will boost your thought. Reading right materials shall help change your thought pattern.

What you read helps form your thought. If the stuff is great, it helps form great thoughts in you, but if the stuff is junk, it helps form "junk" thoughts in you.

CHANGE YOUR COMPANY

The company you keep has power to either move you forward or take you backward. No company leaves you the same; it makes you either wiser or more foolish. (Prov.13:20)

By going with Naomi, Ruth changed the course of her life forever. You go in the direction of the group you keep.

Take a critical look at the people around your life. Do you think they are going in the direction you desire to go yourself? If not, it is time to drop them and get new people to move with. It was Charles 'Tremendous' Jones that said, "you are the same person in five years from now, except for the books you read and the company you keep."

It is imperative for you to know at this juncture, that change only happens to the committed. You must be committed to the covenant keys listed above, if you truly desire a change in the course of your life. You do not wish a change; you work a change. So, go and work it! "Work out your own salvation (change) with fear and trembling." Phil.2:12

Sit up, and start working on this change process and watch your life take a new turn. It is a new dawn for you.

Your turnaround has started!

LOVE BUSTERS

(Deadly habits that wreck relationships)

Relationships blossom only when you put in your best and imbibe the right habits to make the relationship work. There are some terrible habits that can wreck a relationship, and destroy the romantic love between a husband and a wife. I call those destructive habits LOVE BUSTERS.

During courtship, a man and a woman create the feelings of romantic love for each other by their thoughtfulness, commitment and caring attitudes. However, when they get married, they destroy their love for each other when they stop meeting each other's needs and start hurting each other. Love now turns into hatred.

WHAT ARE LOVE BUSTERS?

Whenever you do something that makes your spouse unhappy, the best is to apologize; and apologizing quickly heals the wound, and covers up your mistakes. But when a mistake turns into a habit; repeated again and again, it destroys the relationship. Watch out! Destroy those habits before they destroy your relationship. You have the responsibility to make your partner happy.

1. ANGER (who wants to live with a time bomb?)

Losing your temper at every slightest provocation is a sign of immaturity. Never blame anyone for your feelings; you have the sole responsibility to determine how you react in every given situation. Be disciplined enough to control your temper. The Bible says,

"Be not hasty in thy spirit to be angry: for anger resteth in the bosom of fools."

Eccl 7:9

Anger could manifest in two ways:

1. VERBAL Angry outburst or ridicule and Sarcasm
2. PHYSICAL - This can lead to violence and physically beating up your spouse.

Watch it! Anger is a killer; it will surely destroy any relationship.

2. DISRESPECTFUL JUDGEMENT (who wants to live with a critic?)

Have you ever tried to straighten out your spouse? Occasionally we are tempted to do that because we thought we are better than they are. A disrespectful judgment occurs when you try to impose your own system of values and beliefs on someone else. You may think you are doing your spouse a big favour, but you must be careful how you go about it, because it might eventually wreck your relationship.

It is better to discuss every conflicting issue with the willingness to change your mind in the process, and the two of you can learn from each other. In relationships, the blending of a man and woman's value system brings benefits to both of them. Respectfully discuss your beliefs and values with mutual acceptance of your differences to create a superior system. Without that respect, the romantic love for each other will be destroyed.

3. ANNOYING BEHAVIOUR (Who wants to live with an inconsiderate partner?)

This is very subtle and never taken as important. This is whatever you do to get your partner angry. What is that thing you do that irritates the other person? You must check out for them and eliminate around you.

Personal Mannerisms: like the way you eat, the way you talk, your choice of food, lack of personal hygiene, using vulgar words, telling offensive jokes or anything you do that your partner does not like. What you need to do is to be more considerate and more concerned about pleasing your partner than pleasing yourself.

4. SELFISHNESS (Who wants to live with a Dictator?)

People feel them used when you show no consideration for their feelings. When you think only about yourself and never give a thought to show how the other partner feels.

This may be linked with immaturity an emotional selfishness. An immature kid can grow into an immature adult who demands his way practically in every situation. This is very disastrous to a relationship.

You must go into every relationship with a desire to serve and help your partner live a fulfilled life than going into it for what to get.

5. DISHONESTY (Who wants to live with a liar?)

Openness and transparency is a habit that must be cultivated in every relationship. Never hide anything from each other. (Genesis 2:25) Let your spouse know where you are going, what you are doing, your plans for the future, and what is happening with you. Do not keep any secret to yourself: that is how to build trust in every relationship.

You must understand that marriage is a marathon, and not a sprint. That is why you must do everything possible to see that you enjoy it, and not endure it.

I see the power of God destroying every Love Buster around your relationship and establishing peace in your home forever!

LOGIZOMAI

(Think on these!)

"All men dream; but not equally.

Those who dream by night in the dusty recesses of their minds, awake to find that it was vanity;

But the dreamers of day are dangerous men.

They shall make possible their dreams with their eyes opened." - T. E. Lawrence

What are your dreams for today?

What would you like to see happen in your life, your family, your job, your world?

Our capacity to be dreamers of daytime is one of the distinct human qualities we possess, and yet without practice, it withers.

Are you ready to be a "dangerous" person? Someone bold enough to create out of your own intuitions, a vision of something important you want to accomplish with your life.

Spend some time today to reflect on the dream you need to cultivate, to make your life and your world a better place.

Then, take the next step, and with open eyes begin to start making this dream come alive. Refuse the fear of failure, and the scorning of people who do not believe in your dream.
